

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

Fracking uses water in unsustainable amounts. The wastewater after contains hazardous chemicals. The companies involved sometimes will not release information on the chemicals used. There will be few if any local jobs. It is time for a change to renewable energy . Why not wind!

Sincerely,

D. Berofe