

I spend my summers in Cow Head, in Gros Morne, and am very concerned about the possibility of hydraulic fracturing along the western coast of Newfoundland. Given the findings of the Health Professionals of New York in their recent comprehensive study (attached), I ask you to recommend to Minister Derrick Dalley that the province ban hydraulic fracturing until it is proven safe. Please add this report to the list of "Documents Under Consideration by the Panel:"