

I know ppl who have worked at nickel smelter in New Brunswick on short term basis. It is so toxic and unhealthy they have their blood taken on the way in and again on the way out to check for changes. If anyone eats fish from anywhere near these things they are crazy. If you google nickel smelter pollution you will probably throw up or cry. They are literally environmental disasters.