

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

This is destruction for the promotion of a business that is quickly being overtaken by alternative energies. The recovery of oil and gas by this method is not only unnecessary for world supplies but makes the bedrock far more vulnerable to "natural" disasters like earthquakes.

Sincerely,

J. Paquette