

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

I live in B.C. and there is evidence to suggest that fracking damages the layers of ground and can contribute to earthquakes. It just doesn't make sense to me to do this. Affects drinking water as well. The governments in Canada are allowing these big corporations to run rough-shod over our beautiful country.

Sincerely,

J. Phillips