

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

Please keep Newfoundland and Labrador fracking free. These are rare and beautiful territories that are essential to protect from destructive gases such as methane which are released in the fracking process, -i am so lucky to have an area like Newfoundland and Labrador as a natural pure environment. It is very precious resouce for all Canadians and all people and must be protected from the fracking process.

Sincerely,

M. Ballin