

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

Research and experience have proven that fracking is a risky and dishonest way to produce an energy source. Our politicians and policy makers need to have a vision into the future of our Country, we are a Nation and not an Enterprise. Government officials need to legislate to protect our water, our land and our wildlife.

Sincerely,

S. Castillo