

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

Fracking will destroy the natural beauty of a very special place. Do not allow this to happen. The people of Canada value our environment above the profits of the energy sector. Instead of investing in fracking...put the money and energy into clean energy that does not damage the environment and the technology that can reduce our impact on the environment.

Sincerely,

S. Feldman