

No Fracking Way!

I protest in the the strongest way possible the use of this technology, as yet not proven safe, in the pristine ecologically sensitive and geologically significant region of our province. The consequences of misadventure here may hold unconscionable risks for the environment, wildlife, and humans for generations to come.

I further suggest opportunities for public consultation be extended to the entire province.