

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

Fracking involves the use of a very large volume of water.

Hazardous chemicals used in fracking will ruin the purity of water.

Fracking is a very short sighted way to obtain limited amount of oil and cause much damage to the clean water supply of the area.

Please keep Newfoundland and Labrador fracking free and maintain the purity of the land for locals and visitors to enjoy.

Sincerely,

W.K. Tso