

Keep Newfoundland and Labrador frack-free

This technology is short-term profiteering by private interests at great public risk and expense to deal with the ruined landscape and after-effects on the water table and land stability. Please keep your moratorium and support the alternative energy sector - there are many options for energy that don't risk the environment and that have more benefits than fracking.

Sincerely,

Y. Macor