

Media Submissions from K. Marche

May 5, 2015

1 - Fracking Criticism Spreads, Even in Alberta and Texas

<http://www.cbc.ca/news/technology/fracking-criticism-spreads-even-in-alberta-and-texas-1.3002287>

May 12, 2015

2 – Environmental Watchdog Worried about Rise of Fracking

Environment Commissioner, Scott Vaughn's last report as auditor of Canadian environmental regulations:

<http://www.cbc.ca/news/politics/environmental-watchdog-worried-about-rise-of-fracking-1.1354456>

3 – Disposal of fracking waste water begins at Lafarge Cement Plant in Brookfield

The disposal of fracking wastewater is impossible to do in an environmentally safe and responsible way, as is evident in Nova Scotia, where the waste from two exploratory wells fracked six years ago in Kennetcook has proven to be a nightmare. The reality of unsolved problems with fracking have to be solved and until then, it is not safe to be permitted in Newfoundland.

<http://halifax.mediacoop.ca/story/disposal-fracking-waste-water-begins-lafarge-cemen/30791>

4 – Fracking – let's not

Let's not here in NL either.

<http://www.news24.com/Columnists/AndreasSpath/Fracking-lets-not-20150504>